ANNOUNCEMENT

NUMBER 27
9 TO 19 MARCH 2027

AFRICAN NUTRITION LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

Application Deadline:
18 September 2026, 17:00 CAT

We are pleased to invite mid-career professionals working in nutrition or related fields within government, NGOs, or academia to apply for the 27th African Nutrition Leadership Programme (ANLP). This intensive 10-day programme is designed for individuals who are committed to enhancing their leadership skills and self-awareness.

Participants can expect a transformative experience that emphasizes leadership practice, networking, reflection, and personal growth. Upon completion, you will leave with an extensive pan-African network, a renewed sense of purpose, and the confidence to lead effectively from your current position.

The course is conducted in English, so participants are expected to have a good command of the language. The programme is fully residential and in-person, with a maximum of 30 participants.

We eagerly anticipate this upcoming event and appreciate your role in helping to foster leadership skills across Africa.

Scan the QR Code to apply or
Visit www.africanutritionleadership.org for more information

Course fee details:

Total Fee: €1,800 ($2,080) for 10 days

Accommodation (Bed & Breakfast): €640 ($740)
Meals (Lunch & Dinner): €170 ($195)
Conference Package (Venue, Tea Breaks, Audio-Visual): €100 ($115)
Transport (OR Tambo to Venue, Return): €100 ($115)
Course Facilitation & Materials: €790 ($915)

Personal costs, such as insurance, drinks, and phone calls, are not included. Successful applicants will be responsible for their own travel expenses to Johannesburg. A limited number of partial grants are available and can be applied for after the initial selection process.